

Online Meeting Minutes: July 19, 2022

Guest Speaker: Mallory Van Abbema, MSW, East King Subregional Planning Specialist, King County Regional Homelessness Authority

- KCHRA presented their framework around their 5 year community engagement plan. Mallory encouraged the community to get engaged with any of KCHRA's outreach events. More info here: <https://kcrha.org/5-year-plan-community-engagement/>. Sessions through July 29, 2022
- Presentation slides can be found on INN website, with meeting minutes

Issaquah Community Services

- ICS continues to see rising community need for eviction prevention and utility assistance.
- Also need more volunteers! Contact Lori Birrell if interested at icsoffice180@gmail.com

City of Issaquah

- City of Issaquah is holding a small resource fair next Tuesday, 7/26 for about 20 community vendors/partners.
- Larger one planned for the City's Welcoming Week, Sept. 10-19. City wants as many partners and interested volunteers as possible to participate and more details coming soon!

TRIO

- David Hall has a Youth Ambassador Group looking for healthcare-related service projects (group of 15-18 year olds). Contact NWYouthAmbassadors@gmail.com
- David is looking for volunteers interested in helping to make blankets for transplant candidates
- Upcoming pickle ball tournament, date TBD

Friends of Youth Healthy Start Program

- Eowyn from Friends of Youth shared information about the Healthy Start program focused on supporting kids under 5 or pregnant parents. This program focuses on supporting the parent/child relationship and they offer in person and virtual services. eowyn@friendsofyouth.org

Eastside Baby Corner

- EBC reported they're still running into issues sourcing formula

Veterans, David Waggoner

- Dave Waggoner is available to help any veterans in need. Folks should contact him with any questions or to connect a veteran to services or for help getting benefits. davids_waggoner@msn.com

Old Friends Club

- Karen Koenig from Old Friends Club gave an overview of their services available for dementia adults and their caregivers - <https://www.olderfriendsclub.org/>.
- They're looking for volunteers to help pick up lunches at Met Market, contact karen@olderfriendsclub.org

Issaquah Food & Clothing Bank

- IFCB needs volunteers! Lots of shortages over the summer. Need help with our food bank shifts, as well as with helping pick up from our grocery store partners. Contact Lisa if interested in driving opportunities! Lisa Haynes lisa@issaquahfoodbank.org