

The Dispute Resolution Center
of King County
opens pathways to understanding and solving conflict.

Dispute Resolution

CENTER of KING COUNTY

(206) 443-9603

DRCinfo@kcdrc.org

www.kcdrc.org

King County

Veterans, Seniors & Human Services Levy

The King County Veterans, Seniors and Human Services Levy helps individuals and families transition to affordable housing, get job training, find employment, receive behavioral health treatment, and more.

Need To Resolve A Conflict?

Mediation is a confidential meeting process facilitated by a professional mediator who helps people work together to resolve disagreements and find mutual and satisfying solutions.

The KCDRC Veterans and Seniors Program provides free mediation services to veterans and veterans involved in housing disputes in King County.

Eligibility:

Seniors 55+ and family caregivers
Veterans and their family members

Types of Housing Disputes:

Neighbor & Roommate

Landlord/Tenant

Foreclosures

Divorce

Services the DRC does not provide:

Help with 3-day/10-day/14-day evictions- contact Tenant Law Center

Legal advice or legal advocacy- Contact King County Bar Association

Applications for Rapid Rehousing Assistance- Contact 211

Relocation or financial assistance- Contact 211

Application for or assistance with SSI benefits- Contact Solid Ground or Seattle Community Law Center

Dispute Resolution
CENTER of KING COUNTY